The Union is as Good as Wheat.

Killed at the battle near Springfield, Mo., August 10th, 1861, while in the act of waving his hat in his hand, and cheering his men on to victory.

Gen'l Nathaniel Lyon.

Published by JAMES GATES, Cincinnati, O.

Distressing situation of Miss Florida.

Shout prouder and louder, and longer and stronger,
The Union, the Union, again and again,
The Union forever, Amen.

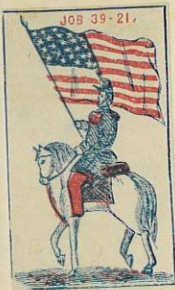

No North, No South,
No East, No West.

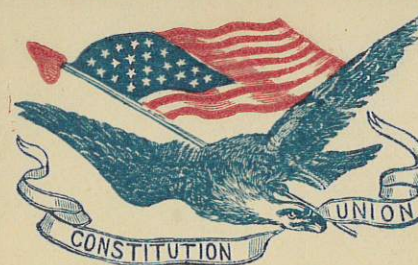

Mary. Why, Johnny, what have you been doing?
Johnny. Oh, nothing, Aunt Mary! Joe and I were playing Scott and Beauregard, and I was Beauregard—that's all!

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME.

'Tis many days since I left home,
To join our glorious army,
I thought but of my country's call,
And not of what might harm me;
I vowed to join both heart and hand,
Where duty calls you'll find me,
I left my home and shed a tear
For the girl I left behind me.

A POLITE INVITATION.

1st Rat,—Don't that morsel look tempting Davis
shall we take it ?
Davis Rat,—I guess we had better wait a little while
I don't like those teeth.

"STAND BY THE FLAG"

M agee, 316 Chestnut St. Phila.

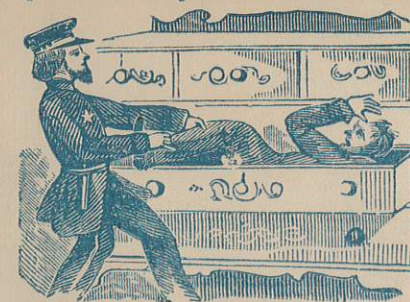

There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise.
He jumped into a bramble-bush,
And scratched out both his eyes.

Now when he saw his eyes were out,
With all his might and main
He jumped into another bush,
And scratched them in again.
