FAMOUS AMERICANS
Educator 10c

Issued at Tuskegee Institute, Ala., First Day City, April, 7, 1940. Under authority of James A. Farley, Postmaster General, During the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON (1858?-1915) Booker Taliaferro Washington, American educator of the Negro, was born near Hales Ford, Va., about 1858, the son of a mulatto slave and of a white man. He graduated from Hampton institute, Va., Harvard, and Dartmouth. He was a teacher at Hampton institute until elected by the state authorities, 1881, as head of Tuskegee institute, which he organized and made notably successful. He became a well-known and able writer and speaker on racial and educational subjects. His publications include Sowing and Reaping, Up From Slavery, Future of the American Negro, Character Building, Story of My Life and Work, Working With Hands, The Negro in Business, and The Man Farthest Down. He died in 1915.

JANE ADDAMS (1860-1935)

Jane Addams, social reformer and head resident of Hull House, Chicago, was born at Cedarville, Ill., in 1860; was graduated at Rockford college in 1881; spent two years in Europe, 1883-85; — studied in Philadelphia, 1888; and, in 1889, with Miss Ellen Gates Starr, opened the social settlement of Hull House. By her practical methods, notable executive gifts, and admirable humanitarian spirit, she became one of the foremost leaders of social settlement work in America. In 1919, she was elected president of the international congress of women at Washington and attended the peace conventions at Zurich in 1919 and at Vienna in 1921. Her publications include A New Conscience and an Ancient Evil, The Spirit of Youth and the City Streets, and The Long Road of Women's Memory. She died May 21, 1935, at the age of seventy-four.

Famous Americans

An American Song Writer, was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. At the age of 16 he wrote his first published song, "Open Thy Lattice, Love". Being very modest and lacking in self confidence many of his songs were published without his name. He composed over 125 popular songs, and among them are the well-known "Oh, Susannah", "Old Dog Tray", "Massa's in de Cold, Cold Ground", "Old Folks at Home", "Old Black Joe" and "My Old Kentucky Home".

"The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it - and the glow from that fire can truly light the world. And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what America will do for you -- ask what you can do for your country."

John F. Kennedy
May 29, 1917 --
